April 2013

With all the negative things going on in the world, it is always great to hear good news. The gospel is good news and to see the gospel change people's lives and eternities is as well. We are seeing good things happening in our family, our ministry, and our movement.

Easter Sunday, I had the privilege of baptizing my two children, Levi and Lily, in front of 48 witnesses. I personally had the privilege of leading them to the Lord in their bedroom when they were younger. I spent several months preparing them through a discipleship course. What a joy it was on Resurrection Sunday to see two kids symbolically dying to self, being buried with Christ, and rising from the waters to live a life for the Lord Jesus!

Our local church continues to grow spiritually and numerically. The church is excited about breaking ground on our new building, which should take place sometime around the middle of this year.

Our congregation in Juiz de Fora took up a special offering on Easter Sunday and we were able to raise $1,250.00 for the building fund!

The movement of Brazilian Free Will Baptist continues to grow as evidenced at our annual fellowship meeting in Barbacena. There were 315 in participation this year, one of our largest crowds ever. Our church in Juiz de Fora was represented at the event by 33 people. The theme this year was "100% - Everyone Giving Their All". The preaching was excellent, as was the singing and presentations from our eight local church congregations.

Yes, God is still on the throne and good things are still happening. Let us stay the course and be faithful in our prayers and giving. With God's help, together, we will build a permanent gospel preaching church in this city of 550,000 souls.
