March 2013

In this edition of Moore News, we have decided to do something a little different. A dear saint of God, Mrs. Ellen Davis, along with her husband William, who was my Sunday school teacher over 30 years ago, have asked permission to address each one of you. Their heart is for souls and they have been actively involved in our ministry since day one. The following is their challenge to you to help build the First FWB Church in Juiz de Fora, Brazil. It is our prayer that the Lord will move your heart to prayer and action through their words and His Spirit.

4 For Moore

Dear Pastors & Fellow Christians,

Missionaries Andy & Andrea Moore were in the States for six months last year trying to raise $200,000.00 to build the First FWB Church in Juiz de Fora. Though the Lord has blessed their efforts, they still lack $70,000.00 in order to build this church. Now that they are back, ministering to the Brazilian people, the last thing they need to worry about is money.

My challenge is for us, together, to raise the remaining $70,000.00. As I was reading the Moore's newsletter, the Lord spoke to my heart about asking 70 churches to encourage each person in their congregation to give four dollars. Christians, I'm asking for your help! If each person in your church would give at least $4.00, together we can easily raise $70,000.00.

The amount you raise can be sent to the First FWB Church-Inman, 90 Blackstock Road, Inman, SC 29349. Earmark your check "Andy Moore Building Fund", or you can donate through their newly updated website www.brazilandbeyond.org/ways you can help/financial support. If you wouldn't mind, let me know of your gift so I will have a record of our progress. My email is: ellen@ec.rr.com.
