January 2013

It's good to be home! Our family returned to Juiz de Fora, Brazil the first of December and how good it is to be back! Our six month visit to the U.S. was a blessing and a time of refreshment. Now we are excited, renewed, and encouraged to be back to the ministry where the Lord has put our heart.

Our Brazilian preachers did a great job in continuing the work in our absence. The church continued to grow and the Word was faithfully preached. Our lay people also stepped up and assumed a great deal more responsibility in their local church. Our congregation welcomed us back with open arms and with a traditional Brazilian supper featuring beans and rice.

As we enter this new year, the opportunities abound. However, our first order of business is to get out of our small rented building as soon as possible. We are rapidly outgrowing our sanctuary and we desperately need more Sunday school space. Though we do not have all the needed funds at the present time, we are moving ahead with plans to build. We are trusting that the Lord will provide the remaining $70,000 through His people. We still need your help to complete the establishment of the first FWB Church in this needy city of over 550,000 souls. As you pray for our ministry, please remember the congregation and the construction of the new temple.

As we say goodbye to 2012, I want to say thank you to all our friends, family, churches, and individual supporters who gave sacrificially to our building fund last year. You are directly connected to our ministry here and you are having a part of reaching Brazilians for the Lord. I am truly thankful for your confidence in our ministry and your generosity toward the Lord and His work throughout the world. Please do continue to remember our family in your prayers and giving in 2013. Taking the Gospel to Brazil and Beyond,

Andy, Andrea, Levi, and Lily Moore
